

HONOR AND ETHICS COUNCIL CANDIDATESRising SeniorsWill BurnsExperience:

Member, Student Gov't Judiciary Committee
 Member, Committee on Honor
 Member, Judiciary Sub-Committee: Working to emphasize Wake Forest's sense of Honor and Ethics to perspective students
 Member, Judicial Referendum Publicity Committee
 Legislator, Student Gov't Legislature
 Founding Member, Wake Forest Emergency Response Team
 Executive Committee, AE( Premedical Honor Society Pledge Class
 Treasurer, Sigma Chi Spring 1996 Pledge Class

Campaign Statement:

As the judicial process at Wake Forest changes, it is important that its new leaders have a strong connection to the new system. I have been exposed to thorough debate on the judicial amendment, with which I have become extremely familiar.

I believe that the new system has enormous potential, and I am committed to ensure its success by sitting on the Honor and Ethics Council.

As a student member of the HEC, I am confident that my objectivity will foster the judicious rulings of my peers and that my strong convictions will not be compromised.

Erin K. GrallExperience:

Judicial Board Member and Secretary 1996-98; Resident Student Association President 1997-98, Vice President for Executive Relations 1996-97, Bostwick Hall Gov't Chair 1995-96; Resident Adviser 1996-present; Wake Forest Catholic Community Communications Co-chair 1995-97; Regional Director for the South Atlantic Affiliate of College and University Residence Halls; National Residence Hall Honorary

Campaign Statement:

I would like to serve on the Honor and Ethics Council because of my involvement with the judicial system over the last two years.

It is a system I believe in and one that I give credence to in my own life. I believe there is a standard which our students must live up to, and that in order to attend this university we must all abide by certain governing rules.

I believe that I am the best candidate for the position because of my experience and my dedication to the Judicial Board over the last two years.

Sarah KutnerExperience:

Perspectives Editor, Old Gold and Black, 1997-98
 Student Adviser, 1997-98
 Investment brokerage firm intern, summer 1997
 Law Office intern, summer 1996
 Politics major

Campaign Statement:

I have been following the judicial reforms closely throughout the school year through my position at the Old Gold and Black.

I am well-informed about these issues and I strongly agree with the reforms. I am eager to get involved with a system which is more legitimate and will serve students better.

My previous experience in a wide variety of campus activities will allow me to be a fair and open-minded member of the council.

Maggie ShafferExperience:

Judicial Board, two years

Statement:

I have served on the Judicial Board since sophomore year. Because the judicial system is changing so dramatically, experience is vital for the success of the new process.

My commitment to the board in the past and my desire to facilitate the new process will be an asset to the Honor and Ethics Council in the upcoming year.

Rising JuniorsScott BayzleExperience:

Honor Council Member 96-97
 Honor Council Member 97-98
 Asst. Business Manager, Old Gold and Black

Campaign Statement:

Wake Forest University is an institution that thrives on the basis of honor. According to the Student Government Constitution, "each student's word can be trusted and that any violation of a student's word is an offense against the community."

I take great pride in upholding this long-standing tradition and securing its promise for every student at Wake Forest.

Therefore, please vote for
 Scott Bayzle for Honor Council.

Edward GriggsExperience:

Hall Government Member
 Participated in Project Pumpkin
 Volunteer to the Downtown Church Center

Statement:

The Honor and Ethics Council holds an important role in preserving the reputation of Wake Forest and its students. I believe I will bring certain standards and ideals to the Council that will ensure our honorable reputation will remain.

Ryan MarvinExperience:

Sophomore Representative for Judicial Board

Campaign Statement:

As a member of the current Judicial Board and a participant in the formulation of the new judicial system, I know I will be able to represent the student body knowledgeably and fairly.

My campus involvement outside of the judicial board includes leadership within my fraternity, Wake Radio and community service work.

If re-elected in the Judicial System I will continue to promote and uphold the ideas of Honor and Ethics in the Wake Forest Community.

Ellen ScarffExperience:

Honor Council member 1996-1997, 1997-1998
 New Leader's Conference, 1997
 L.E.A.D. participant, 1997; L.E.A.D. mentor, 1998
 Vice-President-Public Relations, Kappa Alpha Theta, 1998

Campaign Statement:

Over the past two years I have performed my duties as a member of the Honor Council. Truly a rewarding and learning experience, it is one that has greatly shaped my way of thinking, as well. Honor is invaluable, throughout all aspects of life, both within the Wake Forest Community and beyond.

I hope to be given the privilege of being chosen as part of the new judicial system, as an elected member of the Honor and Ethics Council, which shall further endeavor to promote the importance of honor on this campus and strive to protect its' ideal.

Elizabeth SpruntExperience:

- served on the judicial board the year of 1997/1998
- leader and founding member of a campus ministry
- involvement in the Greek system

Campaign Statement:

Integrity, ethics, and honor are three key components of any respectable institution. Through serving on Judicial Board I have enjoyed playing a part in upholding the integrity of our school and working towards the school's and students' best interests.

My involvement in activities such as Judicial Board, the Greek system, and leadership of campus ministries has taught me discernment in making difficult decisions and confidence to stick by these decisions. I have also learned the importance of being open-minded and empathetic while still staying true to my beliefs. It would be an honor to serve on the Honor and Ethics Council of Wake Forest University.

Becca SuitsExperience:

Current Judicial Board Member
 Student Government Executive Committee on Honor
 Lead participant – focused on the promotion of Honor @ WFU
 Presidential Aide
 Harbinger Corps
 Sponsor Chair for Tri Delta Sorority
 Baptist Student Union Secretary

Campaign Statement:

As a member of the HEC, I plan to execute the Honor Code in the following ways: 1. Give all accused students a fair opportunity 2. Uphold all Wake Forest University Policies Listen to concerns of all students 3. Be an example for others 4. Show leadership through friendship 5. Always be available for counseling or questions 6. Take the position seriously, as I have in the past year. 7. Above all else, Protect the Honor Code.

Amy WilliamsExperience:

Honor Committee
 Preapar
 LEAD

Campaign Statement:

I feel that honor is an integral part of our campus community. I would like to work on increasing the awareness of and respect for our Honor Code. The opportunity to be on the Honor and Ethics Council would mean a lot to me, and I would appreciate your vote.

Rising SophomoresChad BrownExperience:

Founding Member—Honor Committee in High School
 Wake Forest Honor Council Member 1997-1998 School Year
 WFU LEAD Leadership Program Participant
 Trained PREPAR facilitator

Campaign Statement:

Serving on the Honor Council this past year has been quite an opportunity and privilege. Not only have I learned more about our honor code, its policies and implications, but I have also felt my own sense of integrity strengthened, while realizing how vital the presence of honor is in an educational environment.

In the new Honor and Ethics Council, I see further opportunity to represent our class with experience and dedication. With informed input, I believe this new system will surpass the old in effectiveness. Remember to vote on Tuesday, and please vote for someone with experience.

Tom FussaroExperience:

Current Honor Council Member
 Student-Alumni Council
 President of Student Body in H.S.
 An all-around honorable guy

Campaign Statement:

I am just your average Wake Forest student. I am your roommate, your dormmate, your classmate. I am the guy you might run into at a party. I am the fellow you will see on campus and say, "hi", to, I am not some high and mighty honor god who will impose his Puritanical wrath on the Student Body.

My door is always open and so is my heart and my mind. I have fought for you as your Honor Council Representative this year, and I want to do it again on the HEC. Vote Tom Fussaro, you'll thank yourself later.

Bradford LewisExperience:

President of Fraternity Pledge Class
 Freshmen Ministry Team-Intervarsity

Campaign Statement:

Honor is a long-standing tradition here at Wake Forest and something students are proud to be associated with. The fact that students and teachers can trust each other in one of Wake's most valuable assets. With the recent success of the judicial referendum, it is important to continue this success in the coming years.

I feel as though I would be a great candidate for such a job. I have always believed in honesty and responsibility and I plan on being as fair to all students as possible. Remember to vote Tuesday and thank you for your support.

Brian SumnerExperience:

WFU Honor Council
 L.E.A.D. Program
 High School Student Congress for 4 years
 President of high school Debate team (2 years)
 YMCA Youth Legislature (4 years)
 Debate teacher for middle schoolers

Campaign Statement:

In the early years of the new Honor and Ethics Council, experience in the judicial system will be most important. My tenure on the Honor Council this year has provided me with that needed background. Having signed Dean Hamilton's book, I have made a personal commitment to the Honor System at Wake Forest. I continue my pledge to you to serve as an impartial judge of all questions that come before the council. I guarantee an open mind and promise decisions resulting from the utmost prudence in deliberation.

Adam WellsExperience:

1 year SG Legislator
 Appropriations and Budget Committee

Campaign Statement:

One of my goals concerning my time at Wake Forest is to leave it better than I found it. If I can be a person who advocates honor, equality, and morality to my peers, then I will be on my way to accomplishing that goal. I believe that I can approach a place on the Honor and Ethics Council as a way to promote integrity as a tool for building a community well endowed with people of virtue and high moral standards.
