Honor Council Freshmen

Chad Brown
High School Student Government-Two Years
Founding Member of School Honor Committee

I see the position of Honor Council Representative as an opportunity to serve Wake Forest in perhaps the most important way. A strong, fair honor system, in my opinion, could not be more vital to the future of our school. I realize the serious role this body plays and the major responsibilities that accompany this position. If elected, I would work hard, always mindful of both our school's policies and the students' rights.

Katie Fisher

Two Years on high school student run honor court
I've spent the past thirteen years in an environment which revolved around an honor system. In upper school, I served on a student run Honor Court. We were not the "bad guys" nor looked down on for being ruthless in our decisions. Instead, we established a reputation for being fair while at the same time punishing in accordance to what we found obvious offenses. I would sincerely like the privilege of serving on the Honor Council.

Tom Fussaro

Student Body President of High School Twice Class President
Captain of Golf Team
Just an overall honorable guy

Please, trust me, you want me as your representative on your Honor Council. Hopefully, during your days at Wake Forest, you will never be put before the Honor Council. But if you are thrust into such a situation, you'll want to see me, Tom Fussaro, on the other end of the bench. I am the candidate that provides an open ear, mind and heart, I feel your pain. Vote Tom Fussaro, you'll thank yourself later.

Allison Hallman

Treasurer of High School Student Government
National Honor Society
Senior Class Treasurer
Senior Editor of Yearbook
President of Service Club
Captain of Cheerleading Squad and Volleyball Team
Hugh O'Brien Leadership Seminar
Foundation for Teaching Economics Seminar
Georgia Independent schools' Seminar

Honor Council-I believe that I would be a wonderful person on the Honor Council because I have the experience it would take to be able to be a part of the academic council. I believe, in my heart, that anybody who violates the Honor Council should and will be punished for their doings. To be on the council would take integrity, courage and perseverance on my part. I am willing to take part and work hard on the Honor Council to do that.

Matthew Phillips

Chairman and Vice Chairman of the high school Honor Council
Chief Justice at N.C. Boys' State
Vice President of and Class Officer of High School

My most challenging experience, not rewarding experience, and most inspiring experience in high school were all results of the same activity: Leading my school's honor council. I look forward to working to make the Honor Code at Wake Forest a part of what sets this school above all others and what makes or time here special.

Please don't hesitate to contact me. Thanks!

Stew Ramsey

General Assembly
Quiz Bowl - Team Captain
Foreign Language Honors Society - President
Mock Trial - Captain

There aren't any specific reasons to vote for me, however I can give you several not to vote for me. If you want someone who is weak and easily intimidated, don't vote for me. If you think you're better than everyone else and deserve special treatment, don't vote for me. The Honor Council requires its members to be fair and honest and that's the prime reason you should vote for me.

Ian Stevens

Vice President of Inter-club Council

JROTC
Executive Officer of Honor Guard
XO of Drill Team
Color Guard Commander
Track Team Captain
Paramount's Carowinds Rides, Grounds, Operations Supervisor

I'm just a freshmen from Charlotte, NC, that wants to make a difference. I was told that most of the people on the board were incompetent. I decided to see for myself. I know that the board needs a fresh face from a more diverse background to show different sides of the problems that we will be facing. My belief is simple. You get choices. What you do with them are up to you. But remember all choices have consequences, good and/or bad. The council is there to help you correct the negative ones. My mom always told me in sticky situations do what you KNOW is right. That is what I will do.
