

MCAT • MCAT • MCAT

We sent postcards to all the students who took our April 1997 MCAT course through the Chapel Hill office, about 100 students all together. We asked them to let us know how they did on the April test and how much their scores had improved (from an earlier MCAT if they had taken one, or from our first diagnostic). The average improvement for the quarter who responded: . . .

8.7 points!

Don't believe it? Ask around, and then come see how we do it!

Deacons drop pair to Heels and Gamecocks

By David McGlinchey
Old Gold and Black Reporter

The Demon Deacons men's soccer team desperately needed a win against the eighth-ranked Gamecocks of South Carolina. The Deacs have slipped recently, going 1-3 since important victories over James Madison and N.C. State.

On Oct. 29 at Columbia, S.C., it looked as if the Deacs had the win that they so badly needed.

Holding a 4-2 lead with 14 minutes left, the Deacons snatched defeat out of the jaws of victory and lost 5-4.

The team struck immediately when junior Kyle Bachmeier netted an unassisted goal 14 seconds into the game.

With the game knotted at one, senior Kevin Rice opened the scoring almost two minutes into the second half with an assist from freshman Matt Cavanaugh. The Gamecocks tied the score again but Ihor Dotsenko put the Deacons back on top, 3-2, on a penalty kick at the 59:52 mark.

Cavanaugh gave the Demon Deacs a 4-2 lead with 26 minutes left to play when he scored off an assist from Rice.

South Carolina then caught on fire, scoring three goals in twelve minutes, including the game winner with two minutes left to play.

The Gamecocks outshot the Demon Deacons, 23-

11, in front of a packed house in Columbia.

The Demon Deacons tried their luck with the other Carolina Nov. 2 at Spry Stadium.

The Tar Heels should have been a much needed respite from the barrage of ranked teams that the Deacs have been playing: North Carolina brought a 5-11 overall record into the game and were winless in the ACC at 0-5.

The Deacs dropped this game 2-1, however, and have now lost five of their last six games since defeating the Wolfpack on October 11th.

The Deacons lost in double overtime with 12 minutes remaining.

The first half of the game was scoreless, but UNC drew first blood in the second on a breakaway goal seven minutes into the half.

The Deacs tied the game with eleven and a half minutes left when sophomore Chad Evans picked up the deflection of a Bachmeier free kick and put it home.

Sophomore goalkeeper Sean Conner made four crucial saves in the first overtime to extend the game.

Bachmeier appeared to save the team in the second overtime when he stopped a shot on the goal line, but a UNC player kicked in the rebound for the win.

The Deacons fell to 8-9, 1-4 in the ACC with the loss.

The Deacons go on the road to Clemson next Sunday for their season finale.
