The Demon Deacons' secondary made three interceptions against UAB during the Oct. 23 homecoming game. Sophomore Tehran Carpenter ran the Deacons' first interception of the game to the Blazers' 4-yard line, setting up the Deacons' first touchdown of the game.

goal in. Thompson's curving free kick fell in the box to Evans, who composedly crossed the ball back across the goal for a diving Gehring to head in. Gehring struck again in the next minute, beating the offside trap again after a delicate pass from Siira. The freshman Dutchman made no mistake this time and confidently finished past the diving Tilley for his second of the night.

The Deacs struck in the last minute. Freshman Adam Hakes made no mistake and added the Deacs' fifth goal.

The Deacons traveled to Maryland Oct. 23 to take on the seventh-ranked Terrapins. In an always tense ACC match, the game remained scoreless until Gehring notched his third goal of the year in the 76th minute. Thompson sent in bending ball into the box and Gehring rose above two defenders to head the ball back across into the far post. Gehring, who had been unlucky not to score more in the first part of the season now appears to be finding his game. "Yeah, he was unlucky, but now he is starting to hit his form," Head Coach Jay Vidovich said.

As the Deacons continued to put on the pressure Maryland looked for the counter. It came in the 85th minute when Rob Birch found Ghanaian Siba Mohammed on the right side.

The freshman shot low at Conner, but as the Deacon keeper went down the ball hit a bad part of the turf and bounced over the already committed goalie.

Nobody was able to find the winning shot in regular time and the game went to sudden death. There it was sophomore Seale who was able to conjure up the golden goal. A long ball from Hilpert after a clearance found the winger around the area. He brought it down beat a couple of defenders cut back and hit the ball under the keeper for the winner.

The fourth-ranked and undefeated men's soccer team returns to action in a key ACC match Oct. 30 at 7 p.m. against Chapel Hill. The game is senior day and marks the final regular season home appearance for Conner, Evans, Kawesi-Mukooza, Litovka and Patrick O'Keefe.

Volleyball overcomes deficits against Duke, Md.

The Demon Deacon women's volleyball team improved their ACC record to 7-4 as they swept by the Maryland Terrapins and Duke Blue Devils in their most recent contests. As they take the road for the majority of their remaining conference games, the Deacs look towards finishing the season with a good ACC ranking.

"We have played all these teams before and we know what to focus on," senior Sharon Harmsworth said. "We anticipate a lot of success in our remaining ACC matches."

In College Park, the Deacs stormed past the Terrapins for the second time this season in a 3-1 match.

The Deacs rallied from game-point down in both the first and fourth games in securing the victory. The Terps led the Deacons 14-13 and 15-14 in the first game, but the Deacs were able to take the 17-15 win.

In the second game, the Terrapins once again led with a 6-4 score, only to witness an 11-3 run by the Demon Deacons. The Deacs gave up 20 kills to Maryland in the third game and after winning the second game 15-9, they dropped the third, 15-8.

The Terps came out storming in the third game, bolting to a 12-5 lead on their way to a 15-8 win. It appeared that Maryland would force a fifth and deciding game, as they had game point at 14-11. The Deacs, however, turned back the Terps on three separate occasions and went on to seal the match with a 17-15 win.

The Deacons were able to outscore Maryland in the last game, 17-15, holding the Terps to a hitting percentage of .070. Sophomore outside hitter Trina Maso de Moya once again led the team by recording a double-double with 25 kills and 27 digs in the match. Harmsworth also posted a double-double with 11 kills and 19 digs.

As a whole, the team registered 76 kills against the Terps. Senior Julie Cowley had a match-high

"Finishing up the season with a 12-4 record is definitely our goal and we feel that it is within our reach if we are disciplined on defense and we get our hitting percentage back to where it was earlier in the season."

67 assists in the win. On Oct. 27, the Deacs were in Durham facing the Blue Devils. Duke opened the match with a 15-8 game one win after holding the Deacons to .175 attack percentage, but the Deacs responded by winning games two and three, 15-11 and 15-5.

"We played really well last time we played Duke," Head Coach Mary Buczek said before the game. "It was one of our best matches and we have all the ability to do it again."

The Blue Devils dominated game four however, winning by the score of 15-6. The Deacs recorded nine errors in the fourth game while only forcing one Duke mistake. The Demon Deacons then bounced back in the decisive game five, taking the victory with a 19-17 score.

Harmsworth's 22 kills and .373 hitting percentage led the Deacons en route to their 3-2 win. Senior Katie Horne contributed 18 kills while sophomore Margaret Davidson added 17 kills. Cowley had an astounding 78 assists for the Deacs and Maso de Moya recorded her second double-double in the past two matches with 13 kills and 24 digs.

With a 7-4 ACC record, the Deacs currently hold fourth place in the conference, behind UNC, Clemson and Virginia, respectively. The Deacons continue their conference road games in Tallahassee against Florida State University in a match on Oct. 31.

"Finishing up the season with a 12-4 record is definitely our goal and we feel that it is within our reach if we are disciplined on defense and we get our hitting percentage back to where it was earlier in the season," Harmsworth stated.
