

Paid Advertisement by Student Government

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ELECTIONS, CONT.*HEC Candidates*Freshmen:*Halley Davis
HEC

Class of 2004
Phone: x 1187
Johnson 105A
P.O. Box 9448

Experience:

-Honor Council and Discipline Board, high school
-Woodward Academy, high school setup very similar to the HEC

Statement:

Innocent until proven guilty is the idea here! I am realistic about what is expected of Wake students and compassionate and understanding with the accused, while upholding the WFU honor code. I want all of us to feel completely safe leaving our ThinkPad's unattended or our doors unlocked. I will help implement this atmosphere through relating fairly and practically to the accused, so consider Halley Davis for HEC.

Danielle N. Fisher
HEC

Class of 2004
Phone: x 1126
Bostwick 316
P.O. Box 7584

Experience:

-HEC (2000-2001)
-Tri Delta
-Orchestra
-Project Pumpkin
-Debate Volunteer

Campaign Statement:

As a member of orchestra and Tri Delta, I have interacted with different students on campus. This will help me to be fair in my decisions since I have an idea where students are coming from. I have learned to represent the school well in these activities and hope to continue to represent the HEC in a good manner. I feel I am trustworthy, honest, and a good decision-maker, making me a great HEC candidate.

Taylor Fordham
HEC

Class of 2004
Phone: x 1626
Collins B211
P.O. Box 9478

Experience:

-Honor Council/Discipline Board, Sr. Year High School

Statement:

Mistakes are inevitable...especially when one is immersed in a demanding and competitive environment such as the one in which we live. No one is without fault. In fact, it is precisely my own imperfections that would allow me to serve you more effectively as a member of the HEC. I am a firm believer in second chances and in the rehabilitative intentions of such a judicial council. I'd appreciate your support.

Mary Lyn Marquardt
HEC

Class of 2004
Phone: x 1176
Johnson A007
P.O. Box 7181

Experience:

-Numerous Leadership Experiences in High School
-LEAD
-Large Group Coordinator for 2001-2002, Inner Varsity

Campaign Statement:

As a potential member of the Honor and Ethics Council, I pledge to enthusiastically support and promote the ideals of honor and ethics in the Wake community, personally live up to these important moral standards, and view each case fairly, remembering the high value of honor and ethics on our campus, but also considering each case on an individual basis, with an open mind as well as an ability to empathize with fellow students.

Whitney Roach
HEC

Class of 2004
Phone: x 1464
Luter 310A
P.O. Box: 7643

Experience:

-Tri Delta
-Preschool Planning Committee
-Preschool Leader for the Fall of 2001
-Wesley Foundation
-Secretary of the "Harbinger Core", high school
-National Honor Society, high school
-National Charity League, high school

Campaign Statement:

My conception of honor and ethics involves a personal commitment to maintaining the upright standards in all aspects of one's lifestyle, which is in turn reflected to one's community. I would like to serve on the HEC because I love interacting with people. I believe that I would do an exceptional job of identifying with peers and also examining cases, because I am perceptive, insightful, and sincere in my enthusiasm for the perpetuation of honor.

Candra Rowell
HEC

Class of 2004
Phone: x 1202
Johnson 204A
P.O. Box: 9806

Experience:

-Peer Mediation Organization, high school (gave students an alternative to regular school policy punishments)
-Student Government, high school
-National Honor Society, high school

Campaign Statement:

The Honor and Ethics Council is an organization that relies on honesty, integrity, and consequence for wrong action. I feel that as a member of this esteemed organization, I can dutifully uphold these requirements because I am open-minded and have sincere concern for my fellow students. As a member of the HEC, I hope to influence students in a way that will make them see the benefits of having both a moral and respectful lifestyle.

Sophomores:*Brett Bechtel
HEC

Class of 2003
Phone: x 1151
Bostwick 222B
P.O. Box 6026

Experience:

-Member of the Honor and Ethics Council, 2000-2001

Campaign Statement:

I am seeking election to be on the HEC again in order to serve as a fair enforcer of the honor code. After serving one year on the council, I understand that we all make mistakes, but at the same time I believe in upholding the honor code to protect the interests of all hardworking students.

Elijah Bolin
HEC

Class of 2003
Phone: x 1639
Collins 309B
P.O. Box 9431

Experience:

-HEC (1999-2000, 2000-2001)

Campaign Statement:

Wake Forest can be a difficult place to navigate, especially with an administration that is at times disconnected from the currents of student life. Students make mistakes, and I am no exception. I believe in redemption and second chances, and am concerned only with the betterment of the student in every case I hear. Allow me to continue representing your best interests as a member of the Honor and Ethics Council.

Elby Godwin
HEC

Class of 2003

Phone: x 1796
Townhouses 102
P.O. Box: 7136

Campaign Statement:

The Honor Code here at Wake Forest is a core element of what represents the University. I will make sure that the honor system is given its due respect. As your representative to the Honor and Ethics Council, I would like to see that all students understand what the Honor Code stands for and why trustworthiness among the students is vital to providing a sense of community here.

David Groban
HEC

Class of 2003
Phone: x 8580
North 202D
P.O. Box: 9439

Campaign Statement:

I believe that I will best represent the upcoming Junior class on the Honor and Ethics Council. I have been affiliated with a stringent Honor system throughout my educational experiences. Therefore, through those years I have developed strong beliefs and understandings of the ideals of honor and respect. If elected, I will bring those understandings to the council, while turning each situation into a learning experience for all parties involved.

Kody Kleber
HEC

Class of 2003
Phone: x 6483
Taylor 303B
P.O. Box: 9269

Campaign Statement:

The task set before us is not easy; deciding the fate of one's peers cannot be addressed in a frivolous manner. I will take this duty seriously and likewise maintain impartiality. As philanthropy chair of Sigma Chi, I have assisted the community, and I now seek to contribute my efforts to serving justice. Please give me the opportunity to prove that I bear the well-being of the school and its students close to my heart.

Casey Lawing
HEC

Class of 2003
Phone: x 6321
Davis 305A
P.O. Box: 8611

Campaign Statement:

If elected to serve on the Honor and Ethics Council, I vow to maintain the importance of honor and ethics to the best of my ability, bringing a fresh perspective and striving to promote and help keep honor and ethics a high priority. I deeply value and believe all Wake students should possess honesty, truthfulness, and most importantly a strong integrity. I will uphold these ideals and actively be a part of the HEC.

Juniors:*George Kayiales
HEC

Class of 2002
Phone: x 6841
Kitchin 110-C
P.O. Box: 9027

Experience:
-HEC (2000-2001)

Campaign Statement:

I would like to be a member of the Honor and Ethics Council for another term because it is a way to serve the student body. I believe myself to be a worthy candidate for the position because of my concern for students, my previous experience on the council, and my passion for truth and justice. Please vote for me at the polls.

Lindsay LaFoy
HEC

Class of 2002
Phone: x 6339
Davis 404A
P.O. Box: 8597

Experience:

-Young Life Leadership Training Program

-Wake Forest Catholic Community
-Kappa Delta Sorority, member of the Shamrock Project Committee

-Organizational Chair of Preference Night for Rush of Round Four, Kappa Delta Sorority Opinions Chair, Kappa Delta
-Pi Sigma Alpha, the Political Science Honor Society

Campaign Statement:

The honor and ethics of our institution lies as the main force behind the sense of community that Wake Forest University maintains. Therefore, a sense of justice must be distributed according to the principles that we hold highest. When such principles come in conflict with the destructive actions of a member of the community, I will strive to ensure that ideals and morality overcome, maintaining the integrity of our institution.

Margot Lombardo
HEC

Class of 2002
Phone: x 6590
Efird 206
P.O. Box: 6474

Experience:

-HEC (1999-2000, 2000-2001)

Campaign Statement:

I've participated in the HEC for the last two years and enjoyed every minute of it. As a jury member, I can be critical and at the same time compassionate, ensuring that students who come before us are treated fairly. It is for these reasons that I'd like to be elected the council for my final year at WFU.

Drew Miller
HEC

Class of 2002
Phone: x 6452
Taylor 205A
P.O. Box: 9224

Experience:

-Volunteer at Baptist Hospital
-Sigma Chi Fraternity
-Academic Chair
-IFC Representative
-Student Government Association, high school

Campaign Statement:

As students, we have simple luxuries such as being given a take-home test, or being able to leave our books in the library during a brief study break because of the environment created by the Honor Code at Wake Forest. If elected to HEC, I will be committed to making decisions that uphold the values of the Wake Forest Honor Code.

Robert T. Numbers
HEC

Class of 2002
Phone: x 6573
Efird 103
P.O. Box: 6779

Campaign Statement:

Honor and ethics form the cornerstone of our academic and social interactions with each other. When violations of these values are alleged, it is important that all the facts are considered equally. If entrusted with the responsibility of sitting on the HEC, I will approach each case with an open mind and will do my best to help the Council reach a verdict that is fair to both the university and to the accused individual.

Drew Senter
HEC

Class of 2002
Phone: x 6209
Davis 101 C
P.O. Box: 9104

Experience:

-BIA (1999-2000)
-HEC (2000-2001)

Campaign Statement:

After serving on the BIA and HEC during my time here, I have come to greatly appreciate the high moral standards inherent in the University. While these standards are governed by rules, they rely solely on personal responsibility. I will continue to uphold these ideals in my personal life and in making my decisions on the Council. I promise to put objectivity first, seeking the best outcome for the student and the community as a whole.