

CALENDAR

To have an event listed, send e-mail to arts@ogb.wfu.edu by 5 p.m. Monday. For policies, see <http://ogb.wfu.edu>.

ON CAMPUS

Film

Student Union Weekly Film: The Wizard of Oz with Pink Floyd. When: 7 p.m. Fri. 7 and 10 p.m. Sun. Where: Pugh Auditorium, Benson University Center. Info: $2. Next Week: Mockumentary Film Festival.

Y Tu Mama Tambien. There will be a screening of Cuarón's 2001 film as part of the ongoing History and Film Series. When: 7 p.m. April 8. Where: Room 102, Scales Fine Arts Center. Info: Free. Ext. 4396.

Music

Red Priest. The swashbuckling British musical ensemble will perform as the latest installment of the Secret Artist Series. When: Tonight 8 p.m. Where: Brendle Recital Hall, Scales Fine Arts Center. Info: Free for students, open to the public. Ext. 5757.

Bollius Cantata. Brian Gorelick will conduct the Guest Performers Recital featuring the University Concert Choir. When: April 4 8 p.m. Where: Brendle Recital Hall, Scales

Fine Arts Center. Info: Free and open to the public.

Jive 'N Java. A Cappella Sing-Off. When: 7 p.m. April 8. Where: Shorty's. Info: Free.

ELSEWHERE

Concerts

Cat's Cradle. April 4: Edwin McCain. April 5: Hi Mom Film Festival. April 6: Wesley Willis with Angry Adam. April 7:

The Kills/Ex-Models. April 9: Swingin' Utters/Youth Brigade/Pistol Grip. April 10: The D-4/Electric Six. April 11: Drive By Truckers/Leadfoot. Where: 300 E. Main St., Carrboro. Info: Call (919) 967-9053.

Ziggy's. April 4: Insane Clown Posse/Anybody Killa. April 5: Cosmic Charlie. April 6: Melissa Ferrick/Teddy Goldstein. April 7: Slightly Stoopid/Pepper. April 10: Edwin McCain/Roman Candle. April 11: John Scofield/Gomachi. April 14: Charlie Hunter Trio. April 15: Dillinger Escape Plan/Hopesfall. Where: 433 Baity St. Info: Call 748-1064.

Spring: Fest pleases

Continued from Page B6

ing brought Rose's Deli, and Volkswagen picked up the tab March 26 and 27.

Student Union took care of the rest, including the three bands who played free to wrap up the week.

Zimmerman was also in charge of choosing these bands. "Week-end Excursion I chose because I knew they had a following," she said.

"I chose Sankofa because Wake has never had a hip hop group. They are not as well known because they are from Chapel Hill, but I really wanted to bring something different."

The Led Zeppelin "was a last minute pickup" when Texas musician Bob Schneider got the stomach flu, but they put on a great show.

Zimmerman added that she picked "music that would sound good outdoors and be fun to listen to." All in all, SU thinks their tribute to a new season went off much better than expected.

In fact, maybe we should do it again this week, it seems to be the only way the temperature will rise above 40 degrees. The students all seemed to appreciate it as well.

After an expensive formal weekend in a very expensive semester, this was the first time I've been treated by the university since I can remember.

So maybe Springfest is on its way to being the event it once was.

After all, there don't seem to be any drawbacks, except for complaints by teachers who said the microphones were too loud. But it's a small price to pay for some fun in the sun, and a reminder that no matter what is going on at Wake or in the world, we can still take a few minutes to appreciate our surroundings.

Play: Ending show

Continued from Page B6

he felt captured all the original hilarity.

With the help of someone better acquainted with Italian, he went back and inserted some of the jokes left out of the final script.

However, students will still be able to relate to the play. "It's a classic comedy," Dodding said. "The comedy is still very much the comedy of today."

The play does also have a modern bent. "We brought in many local references," Dodding said. For example, at a moment where the script calls for an actor to hum, you'll hear a snatch of everyone's favorite fight song.

Dodding is also impressed with the caliber of the cast. "Everybody is supporting everybody else so well," he said.

Senior Donaldson is the ring-leader of the cast, with "such a presence on stage. I've got (a Jim Carrey)," Dodding said.

The cast includes freshmen Joe Martinez, Nemanja Savic, Matt Gutschick and Zach Tysinger; sophomores Scotty Candler, George Graves and Madeline Smith and juniors Melissa Jones, Kate Roberts and Joey Picard. Seniors Cary Donaldson, Katie Henderson, Kate Lambert and Sarah Wynne round out the cast with first-year Divinity School student Brad Stephenson.

Dodding encourages the audience to get into the performances, strongly believing that audience reaction often fuels actors' performances.

The show will run April 4, 5, and 9-12 at 7:30 p.m., and April 13 at 2 p.m. Tickets are available at the Theatre Box Office and the door at $12 for adults and $5 for students.

Start your career off with a spark.

At Ernst & Young, we not only offer you stimulating opportunities, we value what you, and only you, can bring to our team.

We give you the latest technology, information and resources so you can feel empowered to succeed and grow.

Charge up.

FORTUNE®
100 BEST COMPANIES
TO WORK FOR 2003