SG LEGISLATURE CANDIDATES BY DORM

BABCOCK

Ryan M. Decker
Class: Freshman
Phone: Ext. 1319
Campus address: Babcock A209

Experience: Two Years on Student Government Executive Board in high school; participated in several mock-legislatures in high school.

Campaign statement: I am a candidate who is experienced in both Student Government programs and in the legislative process. If elected I will be a devoted member of the Student Government, who is devoted to make this school year a worthwhile experience for all students, especially for those residing in the chilliest dorm, Babcock.

Raiford Gainey
Class: Freshmen
Phone: Ext. 1297
Campus address: Babcock A101

Campaign statement: I feel that my experience will help me to serve as an effective link between the residents of my dorm and the higher officers of the student government. I feel that I have good experience, and am knowledgeable of the characteristics of a good leader and a successful student government. I hope to be given the opportunity to make a difference in the Wake Forest community by being elected to student legislature.

Brandon Tyler
Class: Freshman
Phone: Ext. 1314
Campus address: Babcock 204A

Experience: No prior experience.

Campaign statement: Central to the Student Government, the legislative branch requires leadership, integrity and morality. These traits are fundamental to build a stable legislature and are also characteristics that I live my life by. Wake needs legislators who will stand up for the students' points of view on policies and affairs! I am looking forward to representing WF's student body in important campus issues if elected. Please consider me while voting, thanks.

Stephen Hausser
Class: Freshman
Phone: Ext. 1306
Campus address: Babcock A110

Experience: High School Class Officer, Mu Alpha Theta (Math Club) President, Destination Imagination President

Campaign statement: I think you should vote for me because I'm thinking about pursuing a career in politics, and you can count on me taking the job seriously.

Lena Marie Benson
Class: Freshman
Phone: Ext. 1342
Address: Babcock A314

Experience: Served as President of Riverside High School's (Greenville, SC) National Honor Society, Served as President of the Advisory Committee (a branch of student government that works to promote harmony throughout the student body), Have gained experience in public speaking through speech and debate tournaments.

Campaign statement: Nothing is more belittling than feeling that your opinion does not matter. My name is Lena Marie Benson and I feel that the views and beliefs of every resident in Babcock should count. I am a hardworking and dedicated student who loves to lead others in making their voices heard. My experience has taught me to know when to lead and when to follow and I would love to be voted as one of Babcock's legislative officers. Please vote for me because I'm different (and different is good :oD).

BOSTWICK

Meredith Grizzle
Class: Freshman
Phone: Ext. 7080
Campus address: Bostwick A105
Experience: (1) Served as vice-president of the National Honor Society during high school (2000/2001), (2) Served as president of the National Honor Society during high school (2001/2002).

Campaign statement: I chose to run for the Student Government Legislature because of my desire to become extremely involved in all aspects of campus life that affect my fellow classmates. I'm an extremely dedicated person who will strive to do the best job possible. I honestly believe that Wake Forest is a wonderful place with endless opportunities. I will serve on the Legislative Committee with a sense of both the duty and honor Wake Forest represents.

Richard L. Cox Jr.
Class: Freshman
Campus address: Bostwick
Phone: Ext. 1157

Experience (High School): Representative (9-11), Student Body Treasurer (12), NCASC Central District Co-Treasurer, Randolph County Teenage Republicans Chairman, Spanish Club President

Campaign statement: Whenever I commit to something, I commit whole-heartedly. Believe me when I say that I will voice your concerns to the very best of my ability and deal with each and every one of your questions. Student Government will be my priority and it will be my privilege to serve you.

Joseph Elberts
Class: Freshman
Phone: Ext. 1155
Campus address: Bostwick B226

Experience: Involved with Student Government in High School. Positions: Parliamentarian, Intramurals

Campaign statement: I would like to represent Bostwick in the legislature. I have had plenty of experience with parliamentary procedure (being the parliamentarian in the past) and feel that I would do a good job vocalizing the concerns of my hall. I am also a cubs fan, enjoy playing intramural sports and enjoy long walks on the beach. Please feel free to call me at x1155 with questions.

Casey D. Mull

Campaign statement: I would greatly enjoy the opportunity to serve the Wake Forest community by participating in the SG Legislature. If elected, I would encourage the student body to be active by voicing ideas which would strengthen not only Student Government but the student body as a whole. I vow to work diligently and to serve as a strong link between all the students, administrators and faculty.

COLLINS

Stephen McLean Stancil
Class: Freshman
Phone: Ext. 1611
Campus address: Collins B108

Experience: Three years service in high school student government. During this time I was chairman of several committees including prom committee and vice president of the student body my senior year.

Campaign statement: I have chosen to run for the Student Government Legislature, because I want have a voice in helping to decide issues that face the Wake Forest student body. I also believe it is necessary that, through my voice, the ideas and concerns of the residents of Collins Hall and the class of 2006 be heard. Because of my previous experience and strong commitment to this job, I am the best candidate for Legislature Representative.

David C. Coons
Class: Freshman
Phone: Ext. 1632
Campus address: Collins B302

Experience: Governor, Louisiana Boys State; Student Body President, St. Martin's Episcopal School (New Orleans, Louisiana); Co-Chairman, New Orleans Independent Schools Habitat for Humanity Project; Outstanding Leadership Award, Louisiana Association of Student Councils; Member, Louisiana All State Speech Team (2002 State Champion- Foreign Extemporaneous Speaking); Member, Wake Forest Debate Team

Campaign statement: Freshmen year promises to be a fun, exciting, yet challenging one as we all establish ourselves within the Wake Community. During this period of discovery, it is vital for the Class of 2006 to be represented wholeheartedly in the legislature by someone who is committed to articulating the interests of his peers. As this vocal representative, I vow to adhere to an "open door" policy, remaining approachable and receptive to your comments and ideas.

Stephen Liadis
Class: Freshman
Phone: Ext. 1641
Campus address: Collins B311

Campaign statement: I would like to make student life more enjoyable for everyone and feel that serving as a representative in the legislature would allow me the opportunity to do so. I am an accessible person and am open to feedback from other students.

DAVIS

Erin Hershey
Class: Junior
Phone: Ext. 6234
Campus address: Davis 106D

Now this looks like a job for me
 So everybody just follow me
 Cuz we need a little controversy,
 Cuz it feels so empty without me.

Anna Hight
Class: Sophomore
Phone: Ext. 6375
Campus address: Davis 315A

Experience: I have actively served on many committees in my sorority, Kappa Delta. Also, I spent the summer working as a camp counselor, which provided me with much experience in leadership and cooperation.

Campaign statement: I aspire to positively impact the Wake Forest community. I feel very strongly about the need for change in several policies, and wish to be given the opportunity to voice those concerns as well as the apprehensions of friends and neighbors in my hall. I am an enthusiastic and friendly person who would be open to suggestion and relish the opportunity to make a difference.

Leslie Fiedler
Class: Sophomore
Phone: Ext. 6343
Campus address: Davis 405A

Experience: I have been actively involved in Student Gov't throughout high school and in college. Last year I was elected as a legislator from Collins and served on the Appropriations and Charter committee.

Campaign statement: I am a fiery red head who likes pina colodas and getting caught in the rain. So if you want a well-rounded girl next door to stand up for you, vote for me for the student government legislature.

Amanda Davis
Class: Junior
Phone: Ext. 6206
Campus address: Davis 015

Experience: SG Legislator (9/01-5/02), Member of the University Committee of Scholarship and Student Aid (8/01-Present), LEAD Participant (2/02-4/02)

Campaign statement: I feel that the goal of an SG legislator is to bring forth the ideas and concerns of the student body to the administration, and if elected I will do the best to my ability to see that this goal is accomplished.

JOHNSON

Scott Hurff
Class: Freshman
Phone: Ext. 1269
Campus address: Johnson B231

Experience: Extensive past experience with Student Government and the government process. Ascended from Rep to Vice President in High School Student Government. Attended Boy's State, worked on Rep. Pat Tiberi's congressional campaign, and have a speech recorded in the Congressional Record.

Campaign statement: I'm a normal guy who wants to get involved in this community as well as make things happen for Johnson. If you don't know me, feel free to stop by, I'm on the second floor in B231. Call me at x1269, as well. My goal is to get to know everyone in the hall (and to try and remember all the names, too). I want to represent all of you, and

I will be grateful for your generous votes.

James Cherestal
Class: Freshman
Phone: Ext. 1234
Campus address: Johnson 317B

Experience: President of the Health Professions club at Sussex Technical High School (1999-2001), Vice-President of the Health Professions club at Sussex Technical High School (1998 & 2002), Key Club council at Sussex Technical High School (2001).

Campaign statement: I was always involved in my community and I believe in giving back to society. I think being a member of the legislature is a great way to help others. I am a good candidate because I have the vision, the experience and the integrity of a good leader. I also listen to the needs of my peers and do my best to satisfy them.

Reggie Mathis
Class: Freshman
Campus address: Johnson

Campaign statement: I am about vision and doing what is right for this community. We cannot grow and prosper as a community until we capture our vision, individually, then collectively. Serving on this legislature will prove beneficial in terms giving insight into students opinions and will give me a chance to represent what this school stands for: the enhancement and betterment of our community. This is who I am, and what I shall strive to achieve.

Richard Nicholas
Class: Freshman
Phone: Ext. 1274
Campus address: Johnson B323

Experience: None Relevant

Campaign statement: I've chosen to run for office because I feel that our hall's voice often goes unheard. Many people have false ideas about this hall and I intend to work toward dispelling those. I plan to accomplish this by organizing social events on campus, sponsored by our hall, generating greater inter and intra-hall interactions, and generally righting misconceptions about the hall ...

KITCHIN

Samantha Larkin
Class: Sophomore
Phone: Ext. 6927
Campus address: Kitchin 306A

Experience: Social Chair for the College Republicans, Project Pumpkin, Intramural Team Captain

Campaign statement: I am a good candidate for Student Government Legislature because I always accomplish what I set out to do. Throughout high school and during the past year at Wake Forest, I have been involved with a number of organizations in which my participation was integral to the benefit of the club. It is my sincerest hope that I will be able to represent Wake students in making our University a better place.

Nikki Marterre
Class: Sophomore
Phone: Ext. 6865
Campus address: Kitchin 204A

Campaign statement: I am committed to representing the needs of the students from Kitchin Residence
