

Police Beat

Briefly

Campus groups may submit short announcements to news@ogb.wfu.edu, faxing or to P.O. Box 7569. The deadline for inclusion in each week's paper is 5 p.m. Monday. For announcement policies, visit <http://ogb.wfu.edu>.

Assault
A student reported to University Police that a man, not affiliated with the university, hit him in the face near the intersection of Wake Forest and Wingate roads around 11:30 p.m. Jan. 20. The victim was not seriously injured, and he refused to file charges. The offender was issued a trespassing warning.

Breaking and Entering
A locked office was broken into in Benson University Center and $200 was stolen from an unlocked metal box between Dec. 13 and Jan. 18.

Theft
$130 was stolen from a purse in an unlocked office in Reynolds Gym between 4 p.m. and 8 p.m. Jan. 14.

Alcohol Violation
University Police cited a group of students for underage drinking at the AMF Bowling Center on Patterson Avenue around 12:49 a.m. Jan. 17. Information about the incident was forwarded to Harold Holmes, an associate vice president and dean of student services.

Miscellaneous
A student was cited for shoplifting and concealing $2.60 worth of merchandise at the North Sundry Shop around 8 p.m. Jan. 23. The student was issued a trespassing warning for the North Sundry Shop and the Sundry Shop on University Plaza. Information about the incident was forwarded to the dean's office.
A man, not affiliated with the university, took a golf cart without authorization from the Landscaping Office between Jan. 23 and Jan. 25. Information about the incident was forwarded to the dean's office.
University Police assisted officers from the Winston-Salem Police Department with a report of an attempted breaking and entering at a jewelry store in Reynolda Village around 2:30 a.m. Jan. 19.
University Police responded to 56 calls from Jan. 19-Jan. 25, including 10 incidents and investigations and 46 service calls.

Students sought for London study
Students interested in studying at Worrell House in London during spring semester 2005 are invited to an organizational meeting from 11-11:50 a.m. Feb. 5 in Tribble A107.
Mary DeShazer, a professor of English, and Paul Orser, dean of the college and of freshmen, will introduce the London program, house and curriculum and applications will be available. For additional information, contact deshazer@wfu.edu.

Project Bokonon hosts information session
Project Bokonon is hosting two information sessions for students to learn basic information about the project, its committees and how to volunteer at 5 p.m. Feb. 2 and Feb. 5 in Carswell 118. For additional information about the project, visit the official Web site at <http://www.projectbokonon.org> or contact Rosita Najmi at Ext. 6537.

Rotary scholarships offered
Rotary Ambassadorial Scholarship applications are now available. Academic-year Ambassadorial Scholarships, three-month cultural Ambassadorial Scholarships and World Peace Scholarships will be awarded beginning in the 2005 year.
Students are ineligible if they, their parents, or their grandparents are or were Rotarians.
Applications for cultural and ambassadorial scholarships are due March 19; applications for World Peace scholarships are due June 1. Interested students and scholar applicants should visit http://www.rotary.org/foundation/educational/amb_scho/index.html and, if interested, should plan to attend an information session at 11 a.m. Feb. 26 in Benson 410.

Handbell Choir seeks new ringers
The Wake Forest Handbell Choir is looking for new ringers. No handbell experience or music reading is necessary, though it would be helpful. Any interested students should contact Janie McElwee, director, at mceljl@wfu.edu or Emily Hoar, assistant director, at hoaree2@wfu.edu.

Law association holds scholarship banquet
The Black Law Students Association will hold its 19th Annual Scholarship Banquet at 6:30 p.m. Feb. 20 at Bridger Field House. The speaker will be the Honorable Allyson Duncan.
For ticket information, call Ext. 1750.

Race relations expert to speak
Tim Wise, renowned social activist and senior advisor at the Race Relations Institute at Fisk University will speak at 7 p.m. Jan. 29 in Carswell 111. The topic of his lecture is "Beyond Diversity: Challenging Racism in the Age of Backlash."

Admission is free and the public is invited to attend. For more information, contact Amanda Smith at Ext. 4854.

Pro-Humanitate Scholars grants due
Applications for Pro Humanitate Scholars service-learning grants are due Feb. 9. The Pro-Humanitate fund annually provides support for five students and faculty each year who collaborate on a community-related research project that synthesizes learning and service.
Student awards will be made for up to $3,000 for international projects and up to $2,000 for domestic projects. Faculty advisor awards will be made for up to $1,500 for international projects and $1,000 for domestic projects, with a professional development award of $500.

For more information, visit the Web site at <http://www.wfu.edu/phfund> or contact Charidy Hight, the assistant director of student development, at Ext. 4549.

Worrell House seeks assistants
Applications are being accepted for two student assistant at the Worrell House in London. One assistant typically occupies the house from late May until mid-August; the second, from mid-July until mid-August. Airfare and living stipend are provided.
A letter of qualification and one faculty recommendation should be sent to Paul N. Orser, the associate dean and dean of freshmen, by Feb. 5 at Reynolda Hall Room 104.

Testimonials needed for PREPARE
PREPARE is searching for testimonials from people who have experienced or know those who have experienced sexual assault to be read at the 12th annual Speakout Feb. 11.
All testimonials should be submitted to Amy Shuman, university counseling center, by Feb. 2 in Reynolda Hall Room 118.

Symposium honors pastor
The university Divinity School, in partnership with Myers Park Baptist Church of Charlotte, will co-host "A Carlyle Marney Symposium" Feb. 7-8. The event will discuss the life and work of Carlyle Marney in confronting issues of race and Christian ethics.

The two-day symposium takes place on campus from 8:30 a. m. to 12:30 p.m. Feb. 7 and at Myers Park Baptist Church from 9:45 a.m. to 2:45 p.m. Feb. 8. The cost of the symposium is $30 for one day and $50 for both.
For additional information, contact the Divinity School at Ext. 3522.

Financial aid applications due April 1

Undergraduates receiving need-based aid who plan to return next year should complete renewal financial aid applications by April 1. Complete instructions are available in Reynolda Hall Room 4.
Tax returns and other supporting documents should be submitted to The College Board's Institutional Documentation Service, not directly to the university as in previous years.
Please contact financial-aid@wfu.edu for additional information.

OG&B Directory

Phone Numbers:
Newsroom: (336) 758-5280
Advertising, circulation, subscriptions: (336) 758-5279
Fax line: (336) 758-4561

E-mail Addresses:
General comments: comments@ogb.wfu.edu
Letters to the Editor: letters@ogb.wfu.edu
Story ideas: news@ogb.wfu.edu
Arts calendar: life@ogb.wfu.edu

The Phi Mu Ladies Welcome Our New PHIs!!!

Attention current sophomores and juniors:

You are invited to apply for the position of

STUDENT TRUSTEE

Wake Forest University

Applications are available in the following locations:
Benson 311
Outside of the Student Government Office

Applications are due by 5:00 pm on Friday, February 13 to P.O. Box 7374 (Attention: Vice President Zick) or to 206 Reynolda Hall (Vice President Zick's office)

*It is the purpose of the Board of Trustees to nurture and develop the institution. The Board must consist of persons who will provide leadership and initiative in the continuing process of shaping the goals of the university and insuring that it meets those goals. Except for the difference in the provisions for number, qualifications, election and the length of term, the "student trustee" is in all respects the same as other trustees of the university.

This advertisement has been provided by the Student Life Committee of Wake Forest University.

It's Not Your Fault.

1.800.656.HOPE
National Sexual Assault Hotline
Free. Confidential. 24/7.

(Operated by RAINN—the Rape, Abuse & Incest National Network)

higher test scores guaranteed or your money back

Attend all required classes or make-up sessions, complete all scheduled tests, and do your homework. If your score doesn't improve on test day from your Kaplan diagnostic or a prior official test score, you can choose to repeat our program for free or get a full refund of your tuition. It's that simple.

What are you waiting for? Classes are filling fast...call now to reserve your seat!

World Leader in Test Prep and Admissions

KAPLAN

1-800-KAP-TEST
kaptest.com

To be eligible for this offer, you must be enrolled in Kaplan's full classroom, tutoring, or online courses. In addition, you must present a copy of your official score report and your course materials within 90 days.

STSTRAVEL.COM
Join America's #1 Student Tour Operator

CANCUN ACAPULCO JAMAICA BAHAMAS FLORIDA

SPRING BREAK 2004

Sell Trips, Earn Cash, Go Free! Now Hiring On-campus Reps

Call for group discounts

STUDENT TRAVEL SERVICES

1-800-648-4849 / www.ststravel.com