game with a 2-1 lead that increased to 5-1 when Sterk roped a shot over the centerfield wall with two men on in the bottom of the seventh. Unfortunately four runs were allowed in the top of the eighth.

Later in the inning with the game tied 5-5, Antonelli led off with a walk and Tucker followed with the game winning double to the left, scoring Antonelli. Young was once again called on to close the game and pitched a perfect ninth earning, becoming the first pitcher to have consecutive saves in three years. Freshman Eric Niesen picked up the win to even his record at 1-1.

While making only his second start of the season in the rubber game of the series, senior reliever Brian Bach's experience showed throughout the day as he worked his way out of numerous jams and was unfazed falling behind 2-0 in the fourth. The offense was jump-started by Enick's solo blast to right field in the bottom of the seventh.

In the bottom of the eighth, freshman right fielder Brett Linnenkohl led off the inning with a single to left and was followed by Antonelli, who singled to right. Duke's Danny Otero tossed a wild pitch that allowed Linnenkohl to score from third. Tucker, for the second consecutive day, came through with the game winning RBI double to left-center. In the top of the ninth, Bach worked around the two runners on base to hold on for a 3-2 complete game win.

Bach threw 118 pitches on the day, 78 of which were strikes, in the process of striking out seven and allowing only one earned run.

"We needed to win the series and get the sweep and we pulled out three tough wins," Ellis said.

On April 6, the Deacons traveled down to Charlotte to take on Davidson. Tucker led off the game with a home run and followed it with a two run blast in the top of the fourth giving the Deacons a 5-2 lead. With a 10-6 lead in the bottom of the eighth, senior Kip Byrum surrendered a quick run and was removed with two men on. Young was called on to preserve the win, but Davidson's Jay Heafner managed to connect with Young's pitch, launching a shot over the wall for the game winning home run.

The Deacons, who improved to 14-16, 7-8 ACC, will next travel to Tallahassee, Fla. to take on Florida State. The game is scheduled for 7:00 p.m. April 8.
